

Your Life After High School

Do you have your plan for the future all figured out? No? Don't worry. Most kids don't. But think about the following questions. You don't have to answer them right now. But thinking about how you might answer these questions will help you plan your future. You can photocopy this page to look at later. Or you can download and print out a copy at www.freespirit.com/LD.

- Do you think you want to go to school after high school? What kind of school? Why?
- Do you think you would rather start working right away? Why?
- What kind of job do you want?
- What worries or fears do you have about the future? Who can you talk to about these worries?
- What makes you feel good about the future?

You probably cannot plan the best future for yourself by yourself. So talk to your parents and guidance counselor. Show them these questions. Talk about how you might answer them. These questions will help you have a good discussion with your parents and guidance counselor about your future.
