

How Will You Get Along?

This chapter gives a lot of advice for getting along better in school. Now it is time to think about that advice. The questions below will help you do that. You don't have to answer the questions right now. Just think about them and how you might answer them. You can also make a copy of this page to look at later. Or you can download and print out a copy at www.freespirit.com/LD.

- What difficulties do you have getting along in school?

- What advice do you think will help you? Why?

- What advice do you think will be the easiest to follow?

- What advice do you think will be the hardest to follow?

- What are some ways you might use the advice?

Thinking about the advice is not a one-day task. Keep thinking about the advice. Keep thinking about how you might use the advice. Then—when the time comes—use the advice that you think is right for you. You might find that the advice is very helpful.
